If the person who will receive the vehicle will not pay the owner a price or rent for its use, you should complete the model of the loan agreement for goods. How to use this document This contract regulates the terms and conditions of the vehicle rental, so it will establish the main obligations of the parties, such as the obligation to pay the price or rent of the rental, which corresponds to the tenant, and to deliver the vehicle for its use, which corresponds to the landlord. In that sense, the amount and method of payment of the rent, the date and place of delivery of the vehicle and the duration of the rental will be set.. This contract is for renting a motorcycle in Mexico. It establishes the terms and conditions of the rental, such as the duration, price, and payment method. It also regulates the rights, obligations, and responsibilities of both parties, such as keeping the vehicle in good condition, using it according to its purpose, returning it in the same state as received, and others. The model also allows to foresee key aspects of a vehicle rental contract, such as: who will bear what expenses, whether or not to include guarantees of compliance by the renter, the right or prohibition to sublet and/or assign the contract, the hiring of insurance, and others. This contract can be made by a private document between the parties, but it can also be signed and authorized before a Notary Public, or it can be made by a Public Deed. Once downloaded and printed, this document will take effect when both parties sign it in as many copies as there are people who sign the contract. If a guarantor or joint debtor is established, this person must also sign the contract and keep a signed copy of it. For more security, the signatures must appear not only at the end of the document, but also on the left edge of each page that makes up the document, including, if applicable, the pages of the annexes where any other supplementary document that is part of the contract may be attached.

Applicable legislation The rules of the Civil Code apply, especially those of title XXVI, called "The contract of lease".

How to modify the model You fill out a form. The document is written before your eyes, based on your answers. When you finish, you will receive it in Word and PDF formats.
